B) MULTI-USER LICENSES

When you purchase a Cape Arcona Type Foundry package or single font, you automatically acquire a single-user license, permitting you to use it on two computers. If you wish to use the font on more than two computers, you must purchase an additional Multi-User license. The price of a Multi-User license varies, depending on the number of computer you are going to use the fonts. You acquire a Multi-User license by buying a multiple number of identical fonts or font packages (units). See the list below to find out how many you need to purchase to cover your need of licenses.
